

ANIMAL HEALING CLINIC

Trust. Comfort. Assurance.
Animals know what's going on.

Does your animal have physical or emotional needs? Through the interconnected relationship of the mind, body, and spirit, Animal Healing provides a unique, personalized experience for your animal friend:

- It works alongside your veterinarian's medical care
- Is a holistic approach to care, beneficial for all aspects of your animal's wellbeing
- Helps animals deal with illness, loss, stress, birth, aging, surgery, and other life events
- Healthy animals receive benefits of maintaining health and wellness
- Provides comfort and assurance

Lisa does not practice veterinarian medicine and works in conjunction with your animal's primary veterinarian. She works with domestic and farm animals, and wildlife.
